SAUDI ARABIA: TAX SUMMARY: ESPP

This note applies to Purchased Shares purchased, Matching Share Awards and Free Share Awards granted under the ESPP, is correct as at May 2022 and assumes that the employee is a Saudi tax resident and has been at all times from the purchase of the Purchased Shares, grant of Matching Share Awards and Free Share Awards to the vesting of a Matching Share Award or Free Share Award or sale of shares.

This information is provided for general guidance only and the actual tax consequences will depend on your own individual circumstances. If you are in any doubt as to your tax position, you should seek independent tax advice.

EMPLOYEE

1. Will I be taxed when I buy Purchased Shares?

No – you will not have to pay any income tax or social security contributions when you buy Purchased Shares.

2. Will I be taxed when I am granted the Matching Share Award or Free Share Award?

No – you will not have to pay any income tax or social security contributions when you are granted a Matching Share Award or Free Share Award.

3. Will I be taxed when the Matching Share Award or Free Share Award vests?

No – you will not have to pay any income tax or social security contributions when your Matching Share Award or Free Share Award vests.

4. Will I be taxed when I sell my shares?

No. However, if you are a Saudi resident, you must pay Zakat at a rate of 2.5%.

5. Will I be taxed when I receive my dividends?

Dividends will be paid on your Purchased Shares and they are subject to tax at 5% when they are paid. Your employer will withhold the tax due.

If any tax is withheld in Belgium in respect of your dividend, then to avoid any double taxation, a tax deduction or tax credit may be available if your country has a double tax treaty with Belgium. You will need to apply to your tax authority to claim the tax deduction or tax credit.
